From the Pastor...

Dear Paw Creek,

It has been such a joy for so many of us to be together in worship these past two weeks! As we reclaim the familiar patterns, as we relish the hugs and handshakes, as we enjoy the surprises of each new week (so good to welcome back the choir last Sunday!) - through it all there is an enormous sense of gratitude for all the essential workers and medical professionals who brought us to this point. And above all, gratitude to God for care and protection. Let us remember in our prayers those families for whom these are bittersweet days, especially those who lost loved ones during the months of pandemic, whether from Covid or any other illness. And let us hold close those in our circle of family, church and friends, who are not yet ready to venture out fully. We are grateful that as a church community we are now able to worship with them virtually each week, and will continue to do that into the years ahead.

I know that vacation time is beginning for many of our families - yet another sign of return to familiar patterns. Whether here or away, please be safe, enjoy your family time, and come back rested for new adventures in the months ahead.

And if you are around, remember that on the second Sunday of each summer month (starting this Sunday, June 13), we have a light breakfast and summer devotional Sunday school lesson beginning at 9:15 in the CFC. Regular Sunday school classes resume for all ages in September.

May the familiarity of summer blessing resound for all of us in these weeks ahead.

Blessings, Elliott
